

I am strongly against more media consolidation - where is your concern for the public ? It appears that you are serving private interests - have they bought your support for consolidation?